

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA MUSEUM OF ART (UAMA)
& ARCHIVE OF VISUAL ARTS (AVA)

Rufino Tamayo. Wild Dog (Mexican Masters Suite), 1972, lithograph. UAMA Collections: Gift of Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Glickman.

GALLERY WALK

TOUR THE EXHIBITION

Kingdom Animalia:

A Bestiary from the UAMA Permanent Collections

WITH THE CURATOR

EMILY HANDLIN

UA GRADUATE STUDENT

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 2009
4 PM UAMA MEZZANINE GALLERY

“The bestiaries of medieval Europe were guidebooks to the animal kingdom. Compounded equally of fact, rumor, and faith, bestiaries contained depictions of animals ranging from the familiar to the fantastical.”

UAMA Hours: Tuesday – Friday 9 am to 5 pm, Saturday & Sunday Noon to 4 pm,
Closed Mondays

Location: On the UA campus at the corner of Park Avenue and Speedway Blvd.

Phone: 520 621-7567 Web: artmuseum.arizona.edu

UAMA programs are generously supported by UAMA Partner benefactors I. Michael and Beth C. Kasser, the Jack and Vivian Hanson Endowment, the UAMA Partners and

ARIZONA PUBLIC MEDIA
WE'RE ON TV, ON THE RADIO, AND ONLINE! VISIT US AT www.azpublicmedia.com