The University of Arizona Museum of Art presents:

Joshua Olivera

palimpsest
an image of what once was

May 4, 2012 through September 2, 2012

Opening Reception with artist, May 4, 2012 from 5:00 - 7:00 pm. Free and open to the Public.

Joshua Olivera is a California-based artist who recently received his M.F.A. from CSU, Chico. Working mainly on panel with non-traditional materials such as wood stain and chemical reactions, Olivera explores the overlap of the past and the present. His interest in archeology and the shadows of the past creates timeless works that evoke the ancient world.
