Record and organize your observations in the Venn diagram below. Record visual comparisons, subject matters, style, settings, scale and other elements that appear significant to you.

What major similarities and differences do you see between the two? Summarize main conclusions and support with specific evidence from each text: