

Five Line Poem

Choose an artwork you want to get to know a little better, then create your own poetic response.

One word you think of when you look at this artwork

Two words that describe how this artwork looks

Three words showing action or movement

Four words that express a feeling

One more word that about this artwork